

TEQBALL

in Thailand

A Rising Phenomenon

Teqball, a sport combining elements of football and table tennis, has been gaining significant popularity in Thailand.

What are the key factors contributing to its growth, impact, and success?

Background

Players compete on a curved table, blending soccer skills with table tennis precision.

It shares skills with Sepak Takraw, a popular Thai sport

Originated in Hungary in 2014

Gained a passionate following in Thailand

First to 12 points - best of 3 sets

Growth & popularity IN THAILAND

Teqball Association of Thailand was established in June 2020

IN 2020

Thai Teqball debuted at the Asian Beach Games with Sepak Takraw athletes

IN 2022

Womens doubles reached World Championship semi-finals

2023 saw

40% surge

in teqball club registrations in Thailand
Registered Thai players reached 2,500, showcasing rapid growth

2023 World Championships

Thailand hosted the 2023 FITEQ Teqball World Championships in Bangkok, from 29 Nov to 3 Dec, with free admission for spectators

12 Thai players competed | 2 Gold medals | 1 Silver medal | 1 Bronze medal

54.7k YouTube streaming views across the tournament

Top Thai players

World Rankings

MEN'S SINGLES

Boonkoom Tipwong (42nd)

MEN'S DOUBLES

Phakpong Dejaroen & Uthen Kukheaw (23rd)

WOMEN'S SINGLES

Jutatip Kuntatong (6th)

WOMEN'S DOUBLES

Suphawadi Wongkhamchan & Jutatip Kuntatong (13th)

MIXED DOUBLES

Phakpong Dejaroen & Suphawadi Wongkhamchan (15th)

Thailand ranks 4th overall in World Championships, behind Hungary, Brazil and Romania

Future Outlook

Teqball continues to gain momentum in Thailand with the potential to evolve into a mainstream sport. Ongoing school and community initiative will further increase its growth.

Teqball's surge in Thailand symbolizes an embrace of innovative sports. Its impact on the country's sports scene is set to grow as more discover the joy of Teqball.